Jason Brillon

JSON.brillon@gmail.com • jasonbrillon.com

WORK EXPERIENCE

KAYAK Cambridge, MA   August 2016 – Present
Senior Software Engineer (January 2019 – Present)
Software Engineer (August 2016 – Present)
- Served as one of the principle engineers for the car, flight, and hotel booking pages
- Architected and developed a modular, component-based codebase that operates across multiple brands and locales
- Created hotel and flight checkout paths where users save money by purchasing two separate reservations on a single booking page
- Utilize third-party APIs and SDKs to generate new content
- Performed phone and onsite interviews for general and front-end software engineering candidates
- Managed and mentored three interns

Tufts University Medford, MA   December 2015 – May 2016
Computational Theory Teaching Assistant
- Fostered individual and collaborative growth by holding weekly office hours
- Graded and provided feedback on students' assignments

KAYAK Cambridge, MA   June 2015 – December 2015
Software Engineering Intern
- Enhanced the daily internal tools used by customer support representatives

EDUCATION

Tufts University Medford, MA   May 2016
Bachelor of Science in Computer Science
Bachelor of Arts in English
GPA: 3.69, Magna Cum Laude, Fraternity President, Dean's List

SKILLS

Programming Languages: Java, Javascript, SQL, HTML/CSS, C++
Web Application Frameworks: React/Redux, jQuery
Recent Courses: OWASP Top 10 Security Risks for Developers